

A NEW CAPITAL SURPRISE

The beautifully designed Vivanta by Taj - Dwarka, New Delhi takes the business hotels segment to a new level altogether. By Bindu Gopal Rao residential locale, the Vivanta by Taj - Dwarka, New Delhi has many ways of surprising you. For starters, it is based in the vicinity of the international airport and yet being adjacent to the Sector 21 Metro station, the hotel is well connected to the heart of the city. The hotel's modern architecture spans 250 rooms including 18 suites and a luxurious Presidential Nirvana suite. The room categories include Superior Charm Rooms, Deluxe Delight Rooms, Premium Indulgence Rooms, Deluxe Allure Suites and the Presidential Nirvana Suite.

LOCATED IN AN UP-MARKET

Spread over seven acres, the 6,000 sq ft lobby with suspended chandeliers and dramatic design flourishes with dramatic interplays of light, space and fixtures is a great way to welcome you. The hotel is laid out across five floors, a work and play rhythm lounge, a well-equipped business centre, convention and soiree spaces across more than 15,000 sq ft, both indoor and outdoor and a massive ballroom Tango that stands tall at 27 feet. The 250 room hotel is a joint venture between the Delhi Metro and The Indian Hotels Company Limited.

The glazing design of the hotel makes use of a diagonal grid, inspired by the intricate and yet consistent geometrical patterns found in Indian craft and art. Chiseled good looks, avant garde interiors, breathe easy outdoors, green pockets, generosity of space and light, bursts of quintessential Vivanta surprises like state-of-the-art meeting rooms, interpretive installations, social venues and interesting reading and lounging nooks present you with an address that is just so more.

This is certainly a hotel that is as edgy as it is chic and is certain to delight you in more ways than one. A sculpted inspiration integrated with
