

SUN, SAND AND SPA IN GOA

Pride Sun Village Resort & Spa, Goa, is plush and indulgent.

Located close to North Goa's happening Baga beach and its markets and water sports, Pride Sun Village Resort & Spa offers an indulgent and all-inclusive experience within its landscaped environs. And, in keeping with Goa's ethos of sun, sand and surf, a statue of Helios, the Sun God of the ancient Greeks, welcomes you to the resort.

This resort blends classic, contemporary and local styles to highlight the spirit of Goa. All the 136 air-conditioned and plush suites come with high-end facilities and the sprawling half-acre lawn is a big draw. The restaurants—Hibiscus, Sunflower and Tonatiuh—offer an array of lip-smacking culinary delights. Each restaurant has its own unique ambience and impeccably-themed décor as well as good gastronomic experiences.

There are also two swimming pools complemented by a sun-bedded pool area as well as an exclusive spa that offers a variety of therapies with a salon for even more

NAVIGATOR

Address Sagawadi, Baga Arpora, Calangute, Goa—403 518

By Air Dabolim airport is the nearest.

By Rail Karmali is the nearest railway station (11 km).

By Road Calangute is well-connected with major cities. Taxis are also available from Panaji and Madgaon.

Reservations 0832 226 9103 pampering. A state-of-the-art gymnasium is also available for the fitness-conscious. A range of evening entertainment programmes is organised within the resort and it also offers the convenience of shopping at the nearby Shopping Arcade. State-of-the-art communications systems and presentation facilities make the spacious conference rooms ideal for seminars and workshops.

So go ahead and plan a luxurious working holiday or a chilled-out, do-nothing break!

