is also a major reason for high supply of units. According to ANAROCK research, the top three suburban areas in Bengaluru include Yelahanka, Sarjapur and Electronic City. Yelahanka is a self-sustained micro market which boasts of excellent connectivity to the international airport, has ample social infrastructure facilities and is easily accessible to the IT hub in Hebbal. Interestingly, the mid-income segment is the most dominant category in the city in terms of both demand and supply.

HEALTH

Bengaluru is fast emerging as one of the most health conscious cities in India. What's more is that the city's health sector is on par with global standards: be it in terms of availability of the best hospitals with eminent medical practitioners; state-of-the-art infrastructure; or technologically advanced equipment. "Some of this can also be attributed to a reverse brain drain which has
