BY BINDU GOPAL RAO

With new age washbasins, faucets, furnishings, bathtubs, lights and accessories, bathroom conversations are getting more and more interesting. Today, the lines are blurring between bathroom design and architectural sensibilities, even as designers are focusing on the space that matters a lot. Using new age materials, functions and gadgets, bathrooms are being fine-tuned in an ever-changing ensemble to become innovative and beautiful. Interestingly, the focus today is all about ecofriendly accessories and fixtures that also save water, apart from being energy efficient. After all, the bathroom is a personal space that demands time and investment. We list some products that can shape the bathroom of your dreams.
